become a part of this church family for the summer. Before I came to Pearland, I did not know what to expect. There were so many question marks in my mind. I didn't know how the youth group would respond to me and how the church as a whole would respond to me. But from the moment that I entered the building, I was graciously welcomed by so many of you that it was a bit overwhelming at first. And it is this hospitality that you have showed me that has really made an impact on me.

We see several examples in the Bible where hospitality is shown. Genesis 19:1-3 says, "The two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them and bowed himself with his face to the earth 2 and said, "My lords, please turn aside to your servant's house and spend the night and wash your feet. Then you may rise up early and go on your way." They said, "No; we will spend the night in the town square." 3 But he pressed them strongly; so they turned aside to him and entered his house. And he made them a feast and baked unleavened bread, and they ate." It is unclear if Lot knew that the two men were angels at the beginning, but the main point here is that not only did he welcome them into his house, but he also fed and took care of them. Being hospitable was so important that when some men of the city came to Lot's house to have relations with the visitors, Lot offered his own daughters to the men instead (Genesis 19:8).

Well, as my time here in Pearland comes to a close, I just want to say how much of a blessing it has been to work here and to

In 1 Peter 4:9, Peter writes, "9 Show hospitality to one another without grumbling." Not only did Lot ask them to stay with him, but when they turned down his offer, it says that Lot strongly pressed them. Lot certainly did not grumble, when he showed hospitality. This is one of the many traits that I have seen, not only from the youth, but from the church as well. It is this hospitality and sense of family that I have felt that is encouraging and helping me to become the minister that God wants me to be.

From taking the teens to Bay Area Wide Devotionals, to spending the afternoon at the Golden Agers Luncheon, you have shown God's love to me time and time again. I am so grateful to have been able to learn from DC and Paul about what ministry truly is about, and I am so thankful for the exceptional leadership of the elders and deacons. I am so excited to see the direction that this congregation is headed, and I know that this body will be a light to the community not only here in Pearland, but to other parts of the world!

As I come to a close, I want to share with you a final passage. "Do all things without grumbling or disputing, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain" (Philippians 2:14-16).

Grace and Peace,

Tyler White

KEPT IN PRAYER

Audrey Nelson will be having surgery soon.

Dear Church family at the Pearland Church of Christ, Thank you for all of the cards, encouraging words and incredible generosity shown to me before my move to Boise. I never quite understood why so many of you would give to me so excessively time and time again. One thing I have known, and have grown to appreciate even more fully, is that studying and worshipping at the Pearland Church was a great blessing. I'm still looking for a church here in Boise that sings with the same reverence and teaches so closely from the Bible, but I'm starting to accept that I won't find a church exactly like the one in Pearland. I'd like to let you know I'm very pleased with my job, and Boise in general. One of the first things told to me at Micron is that the training will be like them aiming a fire hose of information at my mouth and me trying to retain as much of it as possible. I had thought they were exaggerating but that turned out to be a pretty accurate description of the first two weeks. Even so, it has been very exciting learning about the role I will be playing. In closing, thanks again. You are an awesome group of Christians.
Tim Godwin
