WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT THE CHRIST?

The title is taken from the question Jesus asked of the Pharisee – “What do you think about the Christ...?” And after the Lord ascended the message of the apostles was that unwavering inspired message that Jesus is the Christ and redemption is in His name. The message from heaven has been constant; never revoked, never apologized for, never a cause for shame.

whose son is He?” They said to Him, “The son of David.”

G. Campbell Morgan, the renowned British theologian and preacher of the previous century, once delivered a sermon on this text in which he observed that the question Jesus asked of the Pharisees was one that has been answered by heaven, by hell and by man. I’ll not restate his sermon, but I will borrow his observation on these three witnesses for my own purposes in this article.

Heaven declared Jesus to be the Christ – and never relented. At the Jordan, as John witnessed, a phenomenal thing happened. After being baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove and lighting on Him, and behold, a voice out of the heavens said, “This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well-pleased” (Matt. 3:16,17). At the Mount of Transfiguration the three disciples with the Lord heard “...a voice out of the cloud said, ‘This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased; listen to Him!’ (Matt. 17:5). In the temple area, in the final days before His death, Jesus said, “Father, glorify Thy name.” Then a voice came out of heaven: “I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.” When the crowd wondered at the sound, Jesus answered and said, “This voice has not come for My sake, but for your sakes” (Jn. 12:28-30).

No generation of Jews since Mount Sinai heard heavenly statements like those heard when Jesus came. Not only did God declare Jesus to be the Christ in utterances, He also foretold it through the prophets. In fact, what was revealed about the Christ, through the prophets (and specifically the prophecies of David was the reason Jesus could pose His question to the Pharisee – “What do you think about the Christ...?” And after the Lord ascended the message of the apostles was that unwavering inspired message that Jesus is the Christ and redemption is in His name. The message from heaven has been constant; never revoked, never apologized for, never a cause for shame.

Hell declared Jesus to be the Christ – and never relented. In the synagogue at Capernaum, the demons who possessed a man of that congregation said, “Let us alone! What business do we have with each other, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!” (Lk. 4:34). The same passage reveals that many demons were saying, “You are the Son of God!” (4:41). Satan has not only confessed this truth, but he has demonstrated his conviction of this truth with an unceasing attack on Christ in the form of personal temptations, attacks by family and friends, and attacks by the spiritual leaders of Israel. Satan influenced men to challenge the Lord’s teachings and to use them to incite hatred. His miracles were denounced and declared to be a violation of God’s law. His prophecies were ridiculed and scorned. Not only that, but in the centuries leading up to the coming of the Messiah, every scheme imaginable was used to destroy the seed of Abraham, or so corrupt it that God would abandon it. Not only that, but since the Christ established His church, the attacks against His disciples have been unceasing. In no declaration or action of any kind, has Satan ever renounced what the demons said in Lk. 4:34.

Men have and can declare Jesus to be the Christ – ... What a sobering thought! Are we as convicted and consistent as heaven and hell?

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Greg Fabian is the contact elder for January. If you would like to schedule a meeting, please see Greg.

Building in Bohicon Let's not forget the work in Bohicon, Benin. Paul Tohionon in Bohicon and Joachin Tonou in Abomey are working in that region of Benin most heavily influenced by idolatry. God continues to open doors for them and the church is strong in its faith. They are meeting in rented quarters in an almost inaccessible part of Bohicon. Their desire is to have a location of their own in which to meet in the center of town. We are raising funds for that effort and so are they. Please help if you can and feel free to speak with DC or Bob Williams if you have any questions.
