CAMP BANDINA 2013

It is difficult to believe that this was my sixth trip to Camp Bandina as the Youth and Family Minister of the Pearland Church of Christ. This trip might have been our best camp session to date, and I would like to tell you a little bit about it.

This year we were blessed to take Charlie Layton, Phil Gerber, Shane Harder, Warren Hudman, James Taylor, Logan Lindelof, Hannah Atkins, Taylor Cuellar, Sarah Deis, Elizabeth Gaskamp, and Brianna Gaskamp. In case you were counting, that's 11 campers, which is the most we have taken to camp in the past several years. All of our campers did a great job at camp and acted in a way that would make all of you proud.

Camp would not be possible without the support of our wonderful congregation. From those of you that prayed for us while we were away to the parents that sacrificed to be able to send their teens to camp, all of you made a big contribution to our camp session. I appreciate your contribution to camp. All that you do for our teens here blesses our whole congregation.

There are three adults that I would like to thank publicly for their help during camp last week. April Cartwright and Heather Brown drove up on Friday to serve as relief drivers so I would not have to drive home drowsy after a long week at camp, and I greatly appreciate their help. Amy Cuellar took a week off from work to attend camp as a counselor and did an outstanding job working with the 7th grade girls she was assigned to. I would ask that you join me in saying a big thank you to these three wonderful Christian ladies.

The theme for Camp Bandina 2013 was "Strength Will Rise," taken from Isaiah 40:28-31. During the week the teens studied different Biblical characters like Moses, Job, and Peter, just to name a few, who found their strength in the Lord. The teens were blessed to praise God in song every day and to hear sermons from talented speakers at night. The teens also enjoyed sports every day and many other fun activities.

I usually have trouble picking out my favorite moment from the week, as there are always so many that happen at Camp Bandina, but this year it is an easy task. This past Tuesday, after several Bible studies, I was blessed to baptize Warren Hudman into Christ in the Medina River. I would encourage all of you to congratulate Warren and help him to see how his strength will rise from the Lord.

To all of you who have children that will be in the 7th grade next year, I would encourage you to send them to Camp Bandina to let them, for the first time, experience the spiritual uplifting of camp. For those of you teens who have never experienced camp, I would ask you to start thinking about going next summer. Thank you all for making the camp experience possible.

Be Strong and Courageous,

Paul
