Please welcome sister Dorris Gates Honeycutt as a new member of our family. Dorris, 96 years old, is the mother of Pat Wagoner. She currently lives with Pat and is homebound.

Originally from Okolona, AR, she grew up on a farm outside of Okolona. Her mother died when Dorris was 11. She had an older brother and two older sisters. Her last sibling passed away in 2011, at the age of 102. After years of farming, her father moved the family to town where he owned and operated a filling station. Dorris graduated from high school in 1935, having lettered in basketball. She said she was tall, and all her people are tall. She also said that red hair runs in her family. Dorris told me, "I was red-headed and all that comes with it, if you know what I mean. And I was the youngest child. Can you imagine?"

Dorris was baptized into Christ in a creek behind the church building in Delight, AR, where she and her husband were living at the time. She recalls that her husband and her mother-in-law were also baptized in the creek at the same time she was.

Dorris lived in Pasadena from 1942 to 2013. Her husband was an electrician with Crown Central Petroleum in Pasadena. She has been widowed since 1980.

She was a beautician before she married, but never worked outside the home after she married. She is a lifelong seamstress, making clothes for her family and taking in sewing for others as well. Her other daughter, Hope Ann Perkins, lives in Pasadena and works for the school district, where she has been employed for the past 35 years.

Dorris and Pat live at 2104 Willow Blvd, Pearland, TX 77581. Her home phone is 281-485-3128.
