THOSE SERVING	4

I am looking forward to the new Sunday night format that gets kicked off this Sunday. While our services will in every way reflect what we've always done on Sunday nights, the one thing that will be noticeably different is that on the first Sunday of each month (except July, when I will be in Africa) the sermon subject will be chosen by you. I have a good list of topics and questions that have already been submitted.

- How is Gen 3:15 a messianic prophecy?
- Mt. 5:48 – How can we be perfect when we all sin?
- Explain the tree of life and why Adam and Eve were banned from the garden to keep them from eating of that tree.
- How do we reconcile Old Testament Scripture that calls Christ the angel of God with the argument from Hebrews that He is superior to the angels?
- Do you have to actually be on your knees for God to hear your prayers?
- How do I go about becoming a daily student of the Bible? Where should I begin?
- Does the Bible say what happens after we die?
- 1 Peter 3:18-20 – What does it mean when it says that Jesus preached to the spirits now in prison? Where was Jesus during the time His body was in the tomb?
- 2 Peter 3:8 – What is meant by “one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day”?

When the primetime game show Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? first began its broadcast run, I seldom missed an episode. I did what a lot of others probably did as well. I shouted my answers out because the person playing the game obviously didn't know them. I would groan when a question worth $50,000 was so simple and easy to answer, yet the contestant would blow all of his or her lifelines and still get it wrong! Then Regis Philbin, the game show host, would apparently hear my shouting and my groaning. It must have annoyed him quite a bit because nearly every time I watched the show and had a fit, he would say, “They're only easy questions if you know the answer.” SO TRUE!

The questions submitted for sermon topics may have answers that are obvious to some, but to many they won't be. Or they may know the right answer to a question, but aren't sure that they could defend that answer to someone else. I think that you have submitted a lot of great questions, and I am looking forward to the challenge of opening the Scriptures and seeing what the Lord says on these questions!

I hope you'll be with us this Sunday evening when the Word is shared.

Keep studying and keep serving! D.C. Brown ©2014
