receive a report each month from brother Adjayi Inoussa, who is our assistant director at the BTC (the preacher training school) F.A.C.E. operates in the town of Zinvie, Benin. A part of Adjayi's (ADD-JI) monthly reports includes information regarding the work we do with World Radio in French West Africa. F.A.C.E. currently receives a financial gift each month from a brother who wants to support preaching via the radio. This has been a very successful work, and there have been a good many conversions as a result.

One of the radio markets selected for this work is in the city of Bohicon, where our brother Paul Tohionon has been very successful for the cause of Christ. As soon as the funds were distributed, Paul was one of those chosen to preach on the air. His efforts have been very well-received. Here is a list of recent topics that he preached on and the responses he has had from those messages:

Date Preached	Sermon Title	Number of Phone Calls Received
9-6-14	The Bible And Plants	28 calls
9-13-14	Children and Education	20 calls
9-20-14	Zacharias' Vision	14 calls
9-27-14	The Language Of The Christian	16 calls
10-4-14	Has Jesus Purified Your Life?	6 calls
10-11-14	Give Your Life To Jesus	10 calls
10-18-14	The Two Stages Of The Christian Life	12 calls
10-25-14	The Prayer	7 calls

The report also stated, "I (Paul Tohionon) meet our radio listeners every Saturday from 10.00 am at the radio station. The manager allows me to receive people and study the bible with them."

The radio station in Cove is 20 miles from Bohicon where I live. Many of the people want us to begin a congregation in the city. We have to get a location where we can have a meeting place. Because of the distance I get home after midnight every Saturday. God is blessing us in the radio ministry in Bohicon."

F.A.C.E., French African Christian Education, is working to train men to preach the gospel throughout the French-speaking nations of Africa where about 300 million people live. That work started just over twenty years ago when the school of preaching that we call BTC was established. Paul was in the first graduating class of BTC, and he has been a very dedicated and successful worker from the beginning.

We, here at Pearland, have supported Paul throughout his years of ministry; and I wanted you to see and be encouraged once again by what God is doing in that country with your purposed, prayerful giving.

Let's keep going! DC Brown
