Dear Visitor,

Friends and Family Sundays are always a great opportunity to invite family and neighbors, co-workers and friends to worship with us on Sunday morning and then sit down to a good meal immediately following. In a way, it is a chance to showcase the Lord's church that meets at this place.

The Lord's church is not a brick and mortar structure, but a body of unified believers in Jesus Christ.

When we think about unity in religious terms, we may have in mind a point of view that is too broad or one that is too narrow. To say that all are unified by a belief in God or in Christ is too broad to actually be a true statement. There are so many points of disagreement that there can never be one fellowship. To say that "only those who believe and act as I do" are true Christians may create barriers to unity based on personal opinions and therefore too narrow. Even among churches of Christ, there are some who refuse fellowship with others over matters of opinion. Unity is not common.

Even in a nonreligious context, unity is not common. We are a nation with 319 million people living in 50 states with differing levels of education, political views, social views, and religious views. We are called the United States of America, but we are hardly unified in all things. Married couples, in a union of marriage, still struggle to have unity. We talk of the family unit, but that's not to say that unity exists in every family. Unity is not common; it is rare. So rare in fact that it is one of the most admired and sought-after things in life.

If these things are true, is it even possible to have unity among believers in Christ? Yes! It is possible, but only with a dogged determination on our part. The apostle Paul wrote, "Therefore I, the prisoner of the Lord, implore you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, showing tolerance for one another in love, being diligent to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as also you were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all who is over all and through all and in all" (Ephesians 4:1-6).

The word diligence suggests the effort that has to be exerted for unity to exist. God's definition of Christian unity is seen in the five things that are "one." If there be more than "one" of any of these five, then unity is impossible; but if there be only "one" for each of these, then unity can be achieved through diligence.

To all those who are visiting with us today, we want to express our pleasure over your presence. Our aim in all that we do and in all that you see and hear today is this: to please Christ in every way by doing those things in our worship that are approved in Scripture and by daily walking in a manner worthy of our calling (Ephesians 4:1).

We are unified by all God has done to redeem us, and we have fellowship because He places us in the same kingdom (Colossians 1:13). We seek fellowship among all who are in fellowship with Him (1 John 1:7). We are not all alike in ethnicity, wealth, age, or health but we are one in all that makes one a child of God.

We're glad you are here!
