Recently some of you have been wondering what that term Jabberwacky is. The easiest way to define a Jabberwacky is a weekly gathering of youth from the Bay Area on Monday evenings in the summer to worship and grow each week. We have congregations coming to us from as far as College Station, so a meal for those in attendance is essential. We were treated to a meal fit for kings this past Monday evening; and I would like to publicly thank all of those who helped organize the meal, those who donated cookies, and those who helped to set up, serve, and break down. Gatherings like these are impossible without the support of the local congregation that is hosting each week, and I like to brag that Pearland does the absolute best when it comes to feeding folks.

closer to God. Jabberwacky is an event that the area teens look forward to every year and one that helps the teens stay connected to one another and God throughout the summer.

Each summer Jabberwacky has a theme; this year's theme is "Life." This summer we will consider the following five questions through the lens of Scripture as we see God's will in our lives:

1. Who Am I?
2. What Am I Doing?
3. When Am I Going To...?
4. Why Am I Doing This?
5. Where Am I Today?
6. How Does It All Fit Together?

We began our summer right here in Pearland, where we introduced the theme of "Life" by playing a big version of the board game "Life." Following our game, we looked at what the Bible has to say about life and discovered that life is a gift rather than a game, a gift that Jesus gave us in abundance (John 10:10). We were blessed to have 210 in attendance, and I must say it was nice to see the auditorium and the annex so full.

Another aspect of the Jabberwacky gathering is the food that each congregation provides for the teens

I hope that if you have a teenager you will make it a priority as a family for them to attend every Jabberwacky possible. If you are new to being the parent of a teen and would like to know a little bit more about what happens at a Jabberwacky, then please feel free to come along with us and see for yourself. If you are wondering about who is hosting each week, take a look at the list below:

- June 13 @ Pearland
- June 20 @ Lake Houston
- June 27 @ Graeber Rd
- July 11 @ Angleton
- July 18 @ Channelview
- July 25 @ Katy
- August 1 @ League City

I hope you are having a blessed week and a great summer so far!

Be Strong and Courageous,
Paul
