WHEN SINNERS ENTICE

In the opening statements of his book of wisdom for young people, Solomon gives instruction and compares two sources of influence. These are found in Proverbs 1:8-19.

and the way is narrow that leads to life, and there are few who find it" (Mt. 7:14). But the counsel of the sinner is an appeal to be uninhibited by ignoring instruction and teaching. Jesus also said, "for the gate is wide and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter through it" (Mt. 7:13b).

The first instruction is an admonition to hear and not forsake the influence of godly parents. Hear, my son, your father's instruction And do not forsake your mother's teaching; Indeed, they are a graceful wreath to your head And ornaments about your neck (Prov. 1:8-9). Honor and admiration are among the benefits that will accompany that son or daughter for the rest of his or her life. The teaching of these two verses is so clearly understood, and the benefits so obvious, that the message needs no additional explanation.

Again, consulting my Hebrew-Aramaic dictionary reveals several synonyms that are found in the Old Testament for entice which include: allure, deceive, persuade, and seduce. Solomon describes their methods of enticement. They will use violence and oppression; even shedding innocent blood seems like an exciting and fun thing to do (Prov. 1:11-12). They promise a fast road to riches, and they assure their victim that he will be sharing in all that they steal (13-14).

The second instruction is a warning to know an evil influence when subjected to it and to not give in. Solomon will devote 10 verses to describing what they say, what they want to do, and the ruin they will bring upon a person (young or old). Solomon begins this section with a bold warning: My son, if sinners entice you, Do not consent (Prov. 1:10).

Solomon warns, "My son, do not walk in the way with them. Keep your feet from their path, For their feet run to evil And they hasten to shed blood" (15-16). You cannot walk with them without becoming one of them! You can't be their pal and tell yourself you won't become like them—you will!

Implied is the fact that such people can be recognized for who they are. But how would a young person, still innocent in the ways of the world, know who the sinners are? Not because of instinct or inherent knowledge, but because they have heard their father's instruction and their mother's teaching and recognize that the counsel of the sinner is fundamentally different. Therefore, Paul instructs fathers to "bring them [children] up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord" (Eph. 6:4).

Their enticement is in their words of freedom, independence, excitement, and a fast buck. With such promises they persuade and seduce. But what's behind the curtain? What are they not telling, and what is it that they don't even know? They don't know that they lay a trap for themselves. They don't know that they lack the common sense of a bird who won't fly into a trap or snare that it watches being constructed. They (the sinners) lay their own trap to ensnare themselves, and they don't realize it. Put another way, they don't even have a "bird brain." In the end, they take their own lives by their choices (17-19).

Notice that Solomon uses the word "entice." My Hebrew-Aramaic dictionary says, "The primary root word for this meant 'to be spacious, wide, or open—enlarge.'" Notice the contrast between instruct and entice. The wise instruction of godly parents is restrictive and narrow. Isn't that a similar concept to what Jesus said regarding our pathways in life? "For the gate is small

My son, if sinners entice you, Do not consent is still good and necessary advice for all!

I am the seventh of seven. I am not good. A king once gave a warning about me. Who am I?

Answer to last week's question: Ishmael and Isaac. God chose both names and revealed Ishmael's name first to Hagar (Gen. 16:11) even though Abraham named him (Gen. 16:15). God revealed Isaac's name first to Abraham (Gen. 17:19). No one submitted the correct answer.

KEPT IN PRAYER

Our sister Dawn Bell suffered a ruptured aneurysm in the Annex parking lot last Sunday night, March 5. She had successful surgery at Memorial Hermann Medical Center on Monday to repair the aneurysm. She will be in the ICU in Jones Pavilion for several days. She is awake and can talk, but is in a tremendous amount of pain. No visitors are allowed at this time. The family thanks our congregation for the immediate medical assistance, other assistance, and prayers. There will be a long recuperation period, but Dawn is already showing great progress. The latest report is that she can stand with assistance, but no steps yet.

Matthew Fabian was in the hospital recently, but is feeling much better.

Adam Parker has had severe intestinal issues caused by antibiotics. Bobby and Angela are awaiting test results.

Mickey Kennada passed away on Wednesday, March 1, 2017. His services will be this Saturday, March 11, 2017, at Niday Funeral Home on Beamer at 11 a.m. Please pray for his daughter, Kathleen.
