GRATEFUL FOR A GOOD WEEK

RALPH BRYANT

was pleased to have some relatives (Tommy and Hester Smith and their daughter Christina Hart from Angleton) come to visit us for worship on Sunday morning. I thought the lesson went well enough, and was very pleased to see sister Carole Kriegel place membership with the congregation here. My kinfolks stayed around until after the business/information meeting in order for all of us to go eat together.

Then Sunday night, after our assembly, Jo and I took Zack and Meredith Williams and Alan Pearson to eat Mexican food at Celaya. We got to know them a bit better and really enjoyed their spirit and energy level. We especially wanted to know how we might be able to help with the congregational game night that the young adults are planning for this Friday night. It seems as though they have most of the logistics taken care of, and are just hoping for a good turnout. I hope you'll plan to come and take part in all the fun and fellowship. Don't forget that the food is being provided, so you don't have to cook supper

Sunday was the beginning of a great week, for me at least. I that night. One of the best ways to encourage those trying to serve the church is to support them in their service. Make every effort to be there for the fun, but also to encourage the young people that are making this effort.

We also talked a little bit about the strength of the group of young adults. That group can make so much difference in the long-term health and direction of the congregation. We talked about several ideas that might be able to solidify not only the young adults, but also some of the teen activities, and help re-establish the youth group to greater vitality.

I will be speaking in Wharton on Wednesday night, but I encourage you to be here to take part in the Bible study and the fellowship, and to keep the good week going. Come fan the spark, both in you and in others.

And those of you in Kevin Scarsdale's group, you will meet on Thursday night at his house for a time of Bible study and fellowship. Again, food will be provided. As I'm trying to get to know everyone, I invited myself to that gathering and am looking forward to being with you in a more casual setting.

Thank you, Lord, for a good week.
