PEACE, BE STILL RALPH BRYANT

Like so many of you, I spent the early part of this week glued to the television coverage of Harvey's trip through the Houston area. One night, Sunday I think, the prediction was that the rain in the League City area would end at about 2 am. So I stayed up and watched the news and the weather outside. When the rain subsided, I went to bed. Then the next day, or maybe the one following, the prediction was that the storm would subside a bit around 1:30. So I stayed up till about that time, again with an eye on the weather outside.

One of my favorite miracles of Jesus is the one when he and the disciples were on the Sea of Galilee when a storm arose. Jesus was asleep in the back of the boat, but those with him were awake and worried about the ominous weather. When they woke him, he chided them for their little faith. Then he spoke to the storm. The winds died and the seas calmed. Peace came to them out of the storm.

When I thought about my weather watching as Harvey passed by, I thought of the disciples and realized I was acting just like them. I heard the message to me, and applied the words of Jesus to myself: "Peace, be still" .

Master, the tempest is raging

The billows are tossing high

The sky is o'er shadowed with blackness

No shelter or help is nigh

Carest Thou not that we perish?

How canst Thou lie asleep

When each moment so madly is threatening

A grave in the angry deep?

*The winds and the waves shall obey my will,
peace be still*

Whether the wrath of the storm-tossed sea

Or demons or men or whatever it be

No water can swallow the ship where lies

The Master of ocean and earth and skies

They shall sweetly obey my will

Peace be still, peace be still

*They all shall sweetly obey my will, peace,
peace be still.*

What did David do because he was afraid of the king of Achish?

Answer to last week's question: Samson (Judges 14:15-17). James Maxcey was first to submit the correct answer.

CHURCH HURRICANE ACTION PLAN:

- The annex is set up to act as the central receiving & distribution point. Leah Bateman and Lacey Gartrell are heading up operations there.
- Mike Baumgartner has a mobile cooking operation strictly dedicated to serving disaster areas. He will set up at the League City church of Christ parking lot. Pearland church is partnering with them as well as Alvin and Angleton to provide meals to those in distress. Ralph Bryant will be coordinating that effort for us.
- Candice and Grayson Townzen will be initiating all communication (from elders) with members via email and phone tree to land lines.
- Kristin Alatrash will copy all communications to members via text message to cell phones.
- Janice Pearson will post all updates on Facebook and church website.
- The church van is available for transportation as needed. For now, contact Chris Lindelof. Starting Monday, contact Zack Williams.
